

BayLands FCU selects ICI for Document Image & Check Image Exchange Advice

McLean, VA, March 7, 2005 - ICI (International Consulting, Inc.), a firm that provides financial institutions with check imaging, core processing and back office consulting services, announced that BayLands FCU headquartered in West Point, VA has engaged ICI to evaluate Document Imaging solutions and provide Check Image Exchange advice.

"To insure superior member service over the coming years, BayLands FCU retained ICI to insure that we picked the best solution for our credit union. We also want to make the correct strategic decisions about branch capture and image exchange," said Dave Gouldin, Systems Manager of BayLands FCU."

"There are countless document imaging solutions on the market today. It is imperative that we understand all the vendor strengths and weaknesses," added David Gouldin. "Check 21 will also change the way that every credit union does business and we want to take advantage of the opportunities associated with the law."

"Over the past 11 years, ICI has worked with dozens of Credit Unions across the US and we look forward to assisting BayLands FCU with their vendor evaluations," said Greg Schratwieser, President and CEO of ICI. "We recognize that BayLands FCU and every ICI client has unique decision criteria, which requires a distinct set of vendors to evaluate. ICI remains objective by not having financial relationships with any hardware, software or outsourcing vendors."
