

Southcoast Health System FCU chooses ICI for Core Processing Advice

McLean, VA, May 8, 2012 - Southcoast Health System Federal Credit Union announced that it has selected ICI Consulting to evaluate vendors and negotiate their core processing contract. ICI is a consulting firm that advises banks and credit unions nationwide with core processing, check imaging (exchange, remote capture and archive), back office assessments and gap analyses.

"Southcoast Health System FCU struggled with the idea of hiring a consultant but decided that it was a cost effective way to move forward. We evaluated several consulting companies over the past several weeks. We have engaged ICI Consulting for the firm's expertise and ability to deliver a comprehensive analysis and evaluation of relevant vendor alternatives," said Duarte Silva, Southcoast Health System FCU's President and CEO. "We are focused on delivering new services to our members. That is often achieved through innovations in technology and the functionality of a Core Processing and ancillary systems. The evaluation of core offerings is a critical decision for our credit union," said Duarte Silva.

"We are pleased that Southcoast Health System FCU has selected ICI Consulting to assist them in evaluating and choosing the best core processing solution for the credit union's needs," said Greg Schratwieser, ICI Founder and CEO. "ICI will employ its unique industry expertise and rigorous processes to assign an objective analysis of viable vendors so that Southcoast FCU can make an educated core processing product decision. ICI's analysis will incorporate key functional requirements that Southcoast FCU desires and enable the credit union to consider offering its members new services such as mobile banking and consumer capture," said Greg Schratwieser.
