

St. Petersburg, FL, March 30, 2022: ICI Consulting, a bank and credit union core processing advisor, announced today that Kimber Adams has joined the firm as Senior Vice President. Kimber brings many years of Core Processing, Financial Institution and leadership experience to ICI. Kimber is an experienced professional with over 30 years in community banking and financial services software industry, including FIS, Metavante and Kirchman.

“I am thrilled to join ICI. I believe the company’s extensive industry knowledge uniquely positions us to partner with clients to ensure they have the best products, at the best price and that they align with the clients’ long-term strategic goals. I look forward to working with our clients to simplify the complex process of choosing the best vendor that supports their brand, long term vision and helps accelerate their goals,” said Kimber.

“We are enthusiastic to welcome a seasoned veteran like Kimber Adams to ICI. She has made a career out of building strong relationships with banks and credit unions, helping them apply fintech solutions to meet their business objectives. Kimber will be able to apply her expertise to benefit our current and future clients.” said Greg Schratwieser, President and CEO of ICI.
