

St. Petersburg, FL, August 5, 2022: ICI Consulting, a bank and credit union core processing advisor, announced today that Alan Vertin has joined the firm as Senior Vice President. Alan brings vast Core Processing and Financial Institution experience to ICI. He has accumulated 33 years in the financial services industry working in various sales and leadership capacities. Alan spent the last 15 years with Fiserv as VP of Finance and CFO, overseeing numerous core and ancillary system negotiations.

"I am extremely excited to join ICI. I have always admired their process and approach to negotiating reasonable service commitments with vendors. I look forward to applying my background and assisting financial institutions with identifying the best core vendor solutions. My goal is to help our clients find the partners that will provide long-term service and innovative solutions for their customers or members," said Alan.

"Alan Vertin is a great addition to the ICI team. Over the years, we have collaborated with him on numerous core evaluations. We have seen firsthand his commitment to his clients and partnership in their future success. We are enthusiastic about Alan bringing that same focus and professionalism to ICI." said Greg Schratwieser, Managing Director, and Founder of ICI Consulting.
