

St. Petersburg, FL, August 1, 2023: ICI Consulting, a bank and credit union core processing advisory firm, announced Danelle Hawig joined the team as Senior Vice President. Danelle is a seasoned financial industry executive with more than 30 years in the community banking and financial services industry, including 25 years at Fiserv. She is known for challenging the status quo and prioritizing stewardship resulting in successful banking relationships. Danelle is an accomplished strategic leader and experienced public speaker, as well as a skilled negotiator.

“I am delighted to join ICI Consulting during this period of unprecedented growth. ICI has an outstanding reputation and a fantastic group of financial industry leaders. Now more than ever, banks and credit unions are seeking guidance as they evaluate their core vendor relationship. I look forward to putting my Core and Ancillary system evaluation, selection and contract negotiation experience to work on behalf of current and future ICI clients. My goal is to ensure that our clients have a winning partnership with their core vendor that will stand the test of time,” states Danelle.

“Danelle Hawig’s client-focused reputation and deep financial industry expertise make her an excellent addition to our team,” expresses Greg Schratwieser, Founder and Managing Director of ICI Consulting. “She has an extensive core system, digital banking and financial solutions management experience and we are delighted to have an SVP of her caliber join the company. We know Danelle will apply her considerable experience to benefit ICI clients.”
