

St. Petersburg, FL, September 11, 2023: ICI Consulting, a leading bank and credit union core processing advisory firm, today announced Wendi Narragon has joined the team as Senior Vice President. Wendi is a seasoned professional having spent more than 20 years in the financial industry, including leadership positions at NCR Terrafina, Fiserv, CUNA Mutual as well as several banks. Wendi's impressive background combines a blend of significant core vendor knowledge with her banking experience. Some of Wendi's many strengths are building meaningful relationships with clients, identifying opportunities and implementing effective sales strategies to maximize profitability.

"It is my honor to join ICI and the phenomenal group of distinguished industry professionals during this time of unprecedented growth. ICI brings a valuable opportunity to each client, providing a very well-managed end-to-end core evaluation and negotiation experience. In the ever-changing technology environment, core processing product buying decisions are complex and very expensive. ICI ensures clients select the best core platforms, and related solutions, to meet specific goals," states Wendi.

"Wendi Narragon brings a wealth of knowledge in the financial space and shares our passion for providing excellent service to clients," reflects Greg Schratwieser, ICI Founder and Managing Director. "We are delighted to have a Senior Vice President of her caliber join the company. Wendi will apply her extensive experience and insight to all ICI clients," says Schratwieser.
